(c) breach of law or public trust; or

(d) a vote of no confidence passed by a two-thirds majority of the members.

5. Except in the case of a Village Youth Council, where the office of a member of a Youth Council or Youth Committee becomes vacant, the Committee of the relevant Youth Council shall organise an election for the vacancy to be filled.

Filling of vacancies on Councils and Committees.

6. (1) The Council shall meet at such times and places as the Chairman may determine but it shall meet at least once in each year.

Meetings of Council.

(2) The Chairman shall also convene a meeting of the Council if requested to do so in writing by not less than one-third of the members of the Council.

(3) The Chairman shall preside at each meeting of the Council and in his absence, the Vice-Chairman shall preside.

(4) In the absence of both the Chairman and the Vice-Chairman, a member of the Council elected by the members present shall preside.

(5) The quorum at any meeting of the Council shall be one-third of the members of the Council and the quorum shall be maintained throughout the meeting.

(6) Any matter coming for determination by the Council at any meeting shall be determined by a general consensus but where a consensus cannot be reached, the matter shall be determined by a simple majority of the members present and voting but in the event of an equality of votes, the Chairman or other person presiding at the meeting shall have a second or casting vote.

(7) The Council may co-opt any person who is not a member to attend any of its meetings as an advisor or consultant and that person may participate in the deliberations at the meeting on any matter in relation to which his advice is sought but shall not have the right to vote on any matter coming for decision before the meeting.

(8) Subject to the provisions of this paragraph, the Council may regulate the procedure of, and any other matter relating to its meetings and may in particular, prescribe the period of notice to be given in respect of any such meeting.

(9) Minutes of every meeting of the Council shall be recorded in writing and shall be presented to and approved by the Council at its next subsequent meeting and signed by the person presiding at the latter meeting and the Secretary.

7. (1) A District Youth Council shall meet for the discharge of its functions under this Statute, at least once in every six months at such time and place as the Chairman of the District Youth Council may determine.

(2) The Chairman of the District Youth Council shall also convene a special meeting—

(a) upon the request in writing of not less than one-third of the members of the District Youth Council;

(b) whenever he considers it necessary to do so.

(3) A Youth Council other than a District Youth Council shall meet for the discharge of its functions under this Statute, at least once in every three months, at such time and place as its Chairman may determine.

(4) The Chairman of a Youth Council referred to in subparagraph (3) of this paragraph shall also convene a special meeting—

(a) upon the request in writing of not less than one-third of the members of that Council;

(b) whenever he considers it necessary to do so.

(5) A notice calling a meeting, together with the agenda for that meeting shall be circulated to each member of the Youth Council at least fourteen days before the date of the meeting.

(6) The Chairman of a Youth Council shall preside at every meeting of the Youth Council and in his absence the Vice-Chairman shall preside.

(7) In the absence of both the Chairman and the Vice-Chairman at a meeting of a Youth Council, a member of the Youth Council elected by the members present shall preside.

Meetings of Youth Councils.

(8) One-third of the members of a Youth Council shall form a quorum at any of its meetings and that quorum shall be maintained throughout the meeting.

(9) Any matter coming for determination at a meeting of a Youth Council shall be determined by general consensus, but where a consensus cannot be reached, the matter shall be determined by a simple majority of the members present and voting but in the event of an equality of votes, the Chairman or other person presiding at the meeting shall have a second or casting vote.

(10) A Youth Council may co-opt any person who is not a member to attend any of its meetings as an advisor or consultant and that person may participate in the deliberations at the meeting on any matter in relation to which his advice is sought but shall not have the right to vote on any matter coming for decision before the meeting.

(11) Subject to the provisions of this Schedule, a Youth Council may regulate its own proceedings.

8. (1) The minutes of every meeting of a District Youth Council shall be kept.
