SUPPLEMENT No. 9

Bill No. 33 Tier 4 Microfinance Institutions Bill 2015

THE TIER 4 MICROFINANCE INSTITUTIONS BILL, 2015.

MEMORANDUM.

1. OBJECT

The Object of this Bill is to establish the Uganda Microfinance Regulatory Authority; to provide for the licensing and management of tier 4 microfinance institutions; to establish the SACCO Stabilization Fund; to establish a SACCO Savings Protection Scheme; to provide for a Central Financing Facility; to provide for licensing of money lenders; to provide for self help groups and commodity microfinance; to provide for receivership and liquidation of a tier 4 microfinance institution; to repeal the Money Lenders Act, Cap.273 and, for related matters.

2. DEFECTS IN THE EXISTING LAW

Currently, microfinance institutions are regulated under the Microfinance Deposit-Taking Institutions Act, 2003. Over time, the microfinance industry has continued to grow and to provide benefits to its clients. However, fewer institutions have transformed into Microfinance Deposit-Taking Institutions than was anticipated. As such, microfinance institutions that are not deposit taking have been registered or licenced under the Cooperatives Societies Act, Cap. 112, the Money Lenders Act, 273 or the Non Governmental Organisations Act, Cap. 113.

The Cooperative Societies Act applies to all cooperatives and is a not tailored to those rendering financial services. Although SACCOs are cooperatives, they differ from other cooperatives given that they facilitate financial intermediation of deposits or savings and as such they are fundamentally similar to financial institutions. Yet, the legal regime under which they are operating is different from that of other financial institutions. As a result, there has been some loss of trust by the population in SACCOs due to rampant fraud and mismanagement leading to the collapse of several SACCOs and thus causing negative publicity for the whole microfinance industry. Thus the need for a new legislation.

3. Provisions of the Bill

The Bill consists of ten parts and three schedules

4. Part I is the preliminary and it provides for the commencement of the Act, its application and the interpretations of key words and phrases used in the Bill.

(1) The Authority shall, within three months after receiving an application under this section, consider the application and may, if satisfied that the applicant meets the requirements, issue a licence to the applicant.

(2) The Authority may issue a licence subject to such conditions as the Authority may consider necessary and may, from time to time, add, vary or substitute the conditions as it deems appropriate.

(3) A licence issued under this section—

- (a) shall expire on the thirty first day of December in every year;
- (b) shall specify the name under which, and the address at which, the money lender is authorised to carry on business; and
- (c) shall not authorise a moneylender to carry on business at more than one address, or under more than one name.

84. Refusal to issue a money lending licence.

(1) The Authority shall not issue a licence for money lending where—

- (a) the Authority is not satisfied that the shareholders and persons responsible for the management of the company are of good character, and are fit and proper persons to conduct the business of money lending;
- (b) the applicant, or any person responsible for the management of a company that is issued with a money lending licence has been convicted of an offence relating to embezzlement or any other financial impropriety;
- (c) the applicant has not complied with section 82(3).

(2) Any applicant aggrieved by the decision of the Authority not to grant a licence may appeal to the High Court.

85. Annual fee.

(1) The money lender shall pay a prescribed annual fee in respect of the money lending licence.

(2) Where the money lender fails to pay the annual fee prescribed under subsection (1), the licence shall be cancelled.

(3) The annual fee payable under subsection (1) shall be payable on the issue of a licence and thereafter annually upon application for renewal of the licence.

86. Renewal of a money lending licence

(1) A money lender may apply for a renewal of a money lending licence.

(2) An application for the renewal of a money lending licence shall be made every year in accordance with the regulations made under this Act.

(3) Subject to subsection (2), on application duly made for the renewal of a money lending licence, the Authority may renew the licence.

(4) The Authority shall not renew a money lending licence where the money lender has violated a provision of this Act or a condition of the licence.

87. Revocation of a money lending licence.

(1) The Authority may by notice in writing revoke a money lending licence if it is satisfied that the money lender—

- (a) has not commenced business within six months from the date of issue of the money lending licence;
- (b) ceased to carry on the money lending business for which the licence was issued;
- (c) furnished to the Authority, information or a document in connection with its application for a licence, which is false or misleading in a material particular;

- (e) has gone into liquidation;

- (f) has been wound up;
- (g) has been dissolved;
- (h) is conducting business in a manner detrimental to the interests of the public;
- (i) is deceptive in respect of the financial condition, ownership, management, operations or other facts material to its business;
- (j) transferred or assigned its licence; or
- (k) contravened the provisions of this Act.

(2) The Authority, shall before revoking a licence, give to the licensee at least fourteen days notice in writing, and shall consider representations made by the licensee before revoking the licence.

(3) Where the Authority revokes a licence—

- (a) the Authority shall cause a notice of the revocation to be published in the Gazette and at least one newspaper of wide circulation; and
- (b) the affected licensee shall, from the date of the notice, cease to transact money lending business.

(4) A licensee aggrieved by a revocation of its license may appeal to the Minister and the Minister may confirm, reverse or otherwise vary the decision of the Authority.

88. Offences in respect of money lending licence.

(1) A person who—

- (a) carries on business as a moneylender without a money lending licence; or

- (b) carries on business in a name or at any other place other than the name or address specified in the money lending licence; commits an offence and is liable, on conviction, to a fine of two hundred currency points and on a second or subsequent conviction, is liable to a fine of four hundred currency points.

(2) In addition to the penalty under subsection (1) the court may—

- (a) by order suspend a money lending licence ;or
- (b) in the case of a conviction under subsection (1)(a) disqualify that person from engaging in money lending business.

89. Form of money lending contract.

(1) A money lending contract shall be in writing and shall be signed by the money lender and the borrower and shall be witnessed by a third party.

(2) The contract shall take the form of a note or memorandum which shall contain all the terms of the contract, and, in particular, shall show—

- (a) the date on which the loan is disbursed;
- (b) the amount of the principal of the loan;
- (c) the interest charged on the loan expressed in terms of a percentage per year;
- (d) the nature of the security, if any;
- (e) the duties and obligations of the borrower;
- (f) the mode of repayment;

- (g) the nature of guarantorship, if any; and
- (h) the right to early repayment.

90. Prohibition of compound interest and provision as to defaults.

(1) A money lending contract is illegal and unenforceable if it directly or indirectly provides for—

- (a) the payment of compound interest; or
- (b) the rate or amount of interest being increased by reason of a default in the payment of sums due under the contract.

(2) Where a borrower defaults to pay the sum payable to the money lender on the due date, the moneylender is entitled to charge simple interest on that sum from the date of default until the sum is paid.

91. Money lender to issue receipts and keep records.

(1) A money lender shall issue a receipt to a borrower for every repayment made on a loan.

(2) The receipt shall be issued immediately after the payment is made.

(3) Every money lender shall keep a record which shall contain—

- (a) the date on which the loan was disbursed;
- (b) the amount of the principal;
- (c) the rate of interest; and
- (d) the sum repaid on the loan and the date on which the repayment is made.

92. Powers of court.

(1) Where a money lender applies to court for the recovery of any money lent, or the enforcement of an agreement or security made or taken in respect of money lent, the moneylender shall produce the records referred to in section 87.

(2) Where court is satisfied that a borrower has defaulted in payment of a sum due to the money lender under a money lending agreement and that there is a further outstanding amount under the agreement that is not yet due, the court may determine the contract and order the principal outstanding to be paid to the money lender, with such interest as the court may allow, up to the date of payment.

(3) Subsections (1) and (2) shall affect the rights of any bona fide assignee or holder for value without notice.

93. Reopening transactions of money lenders.

(1) Where a borrower or a money lender applies to court for the recovery of money lent or the enforcement of a money lending agreement or security made or taken in respect of money lent, the court may reopen a transaction if it is satisfied that—

- (a) the interest charged in respect of the sum actually lent is excessive;
- (b) the amount charged for expenses, inquiries, fines, bonus, premium, renewals or any other charges, is excessive;
- (c) the transaction is harsh and unconscionable; or
- (d) the transaction is such that a court of equity would give relief.

(2) Where the court reopens a transaction, the court shall take into account the agreement between the money lender and the borrower and may, notwithstanding any statement or settlement of account or any agreement to close previous dealings—

- (a) relieve the borrower from payment of a sum in excess of the sum adjudged by the court to be fairly due in respect of the principal, interest and charges, as the court, having regard to the risk and all the circumstances, may adjudge to be reasonable;
- (b) order the money lender to repay the excess sum paid, by the borrower;
- (c) set aside, either wholly or in part, or revise or alter any security given or agreement made in respect of money lent; and
- (d) may order the money lender to indemnify the borrower if the money lender has realized the security.

(3) A court may, at the instance of the borrower or surety or other person liable, exercise the powers under subsections (1) and (2), notwithstanding that the time for repayment of the loan, or any installment of the loan, is not yet due.

(4) Where a court reopens the transaction of a money lender under subsection (1), the court may require the moneylender to produce the moneylender's licence under which the money lender operates, and may endorse on the licence such particulars as the court considers necessary, and the court shall transmit to the Authority a copy of the licence bearing the endorsement.

(5) Nothing in subsections (1) to (4) shall affect the rights of any bona fide assignee or holder for value without notice.

94. Control of interest rates.

(1) The Minister may, in consultation with the Authority, by notice in the Gazette, prescribe a maximum interest rate which a money lender shall charge.

(2) A money lender who charges an interest that is higher than the maximum interest rate prescribed by the Minister commits an offence and on conviction, is liable to a fine not exceeding fifty currency points and the court may, in addition to the fine order that the money lenders licence be cancelled and the money lender pays the borrower any money paid in excess as a result of the interest rate charged.

95. Restrictions on money lending advertisements.

(1) A person shall not send or deliver or cause to be sent or delivered to any person a circular or other document advertising the name, address or telephone number of a money lender, or containing an invitation—

- (a) to borrow money from a moneylender;
- (b) to enter into any transaction involving the borrowing of money from a money lender; or
- (c) to apply to any place with a view to obtaining information or advice as to borrowing money from a money lender.

(2) A money lender may publish in a newspaper or exhibit at an authorised address of the money lender, a notice which contains –

- (a) the authorised address at which the money lender carries on business;
- (b) the particulars of the address at which the money lender carries on business;
- (c) the address at which the moneylender formerly carried on business;
- (d) a statement that the moneylender lends money with or without security; and
- (e) a statement of the highest and lowest sums that the moneylender offers.

(3) A moneylender shall not employ any agent or canvasser for the purpose of inviting a person to borrow money or to enter into any transaction involving the borrowing of money from a moneylender, and a person shall not act as an agent or a canvasser, or demand or receive, directly or indirectly, a sum or other valuable consideration by way of commission or otherwise for introducing or undertaking to introduce to a money lender, a person desiring to borrow money.

(4) Any person acting in contravention of this section commits an offence and in respect of each offence, is liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding twenty five currency points or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding one year or both.

(5) Where it is shown that a money lending transaction was entered into in contravention of this section, the transaction shall be illegal notwithstanding that the moneylender was duly licensed under this Act, unless the moneylender proves that the contravention occurred without the moneylender's consent or connivance.

96. Penalties for false statements and representations.

(1) A person who by any false, misleading, or deceptive statement, representation or promise, or by a dishonest concealment of material facts, induces or attempts to induce another person to borrow money or to agree to the terms on which money is borrowed, commits an offence and is liable, on conviction, to a fine not exceeding fifty currency points or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding two years or both.

(2) Where the offence under subsection (1) is committed by a money lender, the directors, secretary or other officer responsible shall be held liable for the commission of the offence.

97. Notice of assignment of money lenders debts.

(1) Where a debt arising out of money lending is assigned to another person, the assignor, whether he or she is the moneylender, by whom the money was lent or any person to whom the debt has been previously assigned, shall—

- (a) give to the assignee, notice in writing that the assignment is subject to this Act; and
- (b) supply to the assignee all information necessary to enable the assignee to comply with this Act.

(2) A person who contravenes this section commits an offence and is, liable on conviction, to a fine not exceeding fifty currency points or imprisonment for a term not exceeding two years or both and shall, in addition to the penalty, indemnify any other person who is prejudiced by the contravention.

(3) In this section, “assigned” means assigned by any assignment inter vivos other than an assignment by operation of law, and “assignor” and “assignee” have corresponding meanings.

98. Application in respect of assignees.

(1) This Act shall apply in respect of a debt to a money lender arising from money lent after the commencement of this Act or the benefit of any agreement made or security taken in respect of a debt, notwithstanding that the debt or the benefit of the agreement or security may have been assigned and, except where the context otherwise requires, references in this Act to a money lender shall be construed as including an assignee.

(2) An agreement with, or security taken by, a money lender in respect of money lent after the commencement of this Act shall be valid in favour of any bona fide assignee or holder for value without notice of any defect due to the operation of this Act and of any person deriving title under him or her.

(3) A payment or transfer of money or property made bona fide by a person, whether acting in a fiduciary capacity or otherwise, on the faith of the validity of the agreement or security, without notice of the defect shall, in favour of that person, be as valid as it would have been if the agreement or security had been valid.

99. Repayment of monies by a borrower.

(1) Where a borrower wishes to repay a loan to a money lender and the money lender evades the borrower to the extent that it becomes impossible for the borrower to repay the money lender the borrower may deposit the loan monies with the Authority on behalf of the moneylender and the repayment shall be deemed to have been paid to the money lender.

(2) The Authority shall transmit the monies paid under subsection (1) to the money lender.

100. Prohibition of charge for expenses on loans.

An agreement between a money lender and a borrower for the payment of a sum on account of costs, charges or expenses incidental to or relating to the negotiations for the granting of the loan is illegal, and if a borrower pays a sum to a money lender on account of any such costs, charges or expenses, that sum shall be recoverable as a debt due to the borrower or, be off set against the amount actually lent.

101. Penalty for taking promissory note in which the amount is left blank or not truly stated.

A money lender who takes, as security for any loan, a promissory note or other contract for the repayment of money lent in which the principal is, to the knowledge of the money lender, not truly stated, or is left blank, commits an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding fifty currency points or to a term of imprisonment not exceeding two years , in the event of a second or subsequent offence, to a fine not exceeding one hundred currency points or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding four years.

102. Savings.

(1) This Part shall not apply —

- (a) to a money lending transaction where the security for repayment of the loan and interest on the loan is effected by execution of a chattels transfer in which the interest provided for is not in excess of nine percent per year;

- (b) to a transaction where a bill of exchange is discounted at a rate of interest not exceeding nine percent per year; or
- (c) to a money lending transaction where the security for repayment of the loan and interest on the loan is effected by execution of a legal or equitable mortgage upon immovable property or of a charge upon immovable property or of any bona fide transaction of money lending upon such mortgage or charge.

(2) The exemption provided for in this section shall apply whether the transactions referred to are effected by a money lender or not.

(3) A person who lends money only by means of the type of transactions set out in subsection (1) and by means of no other type of transaction shall be deemed not to be a money lender for the purpose of this Act.
